Major Themes

- ★ Breakthroughs in your life - revelatory, epiphanies, moments of clarity
 - * more pronounced with your continued healing progress
 - * healings will accelerate and you'll bounce back quicker than before
 - * we'll notice our patterns more easily
- ★ Break up of the old reality becomes personal and reinvents you
 - * you'll see it first in your outer world - environment, systems of finance, governments, corporations
 - * as things break up and become unstable or wobble on the outside, our inner world will do the same to help us shed or loosen our programs, patterns, behaviors and routines
 - * we may feel a bit disoriented and confused, but that's ok — our lesson to learn is to ground within ourselves
 - * our inner selves today don't resemble our inner selves of 10 or 20 years ago , do they?

- ★ Confusion comes with the speed of change
 - * nothing wrong with being confused right now
 - * we've been trained to think that's a bad thing
 - * allow the processing to occur - if feeling really confused, pick one small thing to focus on to take away your feeling of spinning out of reality

- ★ Are you re-aligning or stuck in a holding pattern?
 - * there's a lot of "freezing" energy right now, causing people to be in a holding pattern
 - * once again it's ok - they may need to be there until their inner world catches up with the outer as I mentioned earlier
 - * this is part of you being "re-made"
 - * The coding pattern is just a gestational period
 - * thinking that you're stuck is just a mental thought form that you need to let go of...the processing will take care of itself and move you out when you're ready...to accelerate this, stop resisting and thinking that there's something wrong...remember "what you resist, persists!"

★ 3rd Eye expansion

- * are we clearly seeing the energy vibrations and emotions in the narratives and stories we are being given?
- * media, gossip, friends and family - are we using discernment?
- * what am I being asked to believe about this person, group, country?
- * why is this writer trying to convince me of something in a certain way?
- * Wayne Dyer - "Be independent of the good opinions of others!"
- * as our 3rd eye expands, we will begin to see the truth of things and people
- * awareness is the precursor to change - our awareness is our first step toward change

- ★ Recapturing, remembering & retelling of experiences
 - * in order to digest, neutralize and strip of all emotional charge
 - * this release is the act of letting go of any attachment to the emotional content of a past event or memory
 - * this includes nostalgia of good time memories as well as traumas - to be put in neutral territory
 - * this will help us prepare for times and things to come so we have more space for them, instead of resistance

- ★ Surges of energy that invite action
 - * watch out for impatience and honor timing around big decisions
 - * with increased space from what I mentioned above, allow the flow of right timing instead of forced action
 - * wait for clarity and relax into the next new cycle without effort

- ★ September and October will offer some of the most powerful opportunities for personal growth and moving beyond old patterns
 - * the discipline is the practice of distancing yourself from the “Need to know”, “the need to fix what isn’t yours” and any irritations that may come up
 - * the personality may have a hard time with this, but following the intelligence of your heart will bring you back on track

- ★ Pluto in Aquarius - this is a big deal!
 - * we will be feeling more of the collective coming together to create real, tangible change for the greater good
 - * greater freedom and innovative thinking with connection to humanity
 - * finding creative solutions to global problems
 - * progressive changes regarding human rights
 - * lots of changes in the tech world
 - * Pluto in Aquarius is about revolution and big change in our society
